A Dragon onboard!

Our hard work and determination to become a major force in the education market has been noticed by none other than Mr. James Caan of the BBC's Dragon's Den, he was so impressed with the way we do business, our attention to detail and unwavering approach to service that he has provided us with the external investment needed to expand and improve our business still further. More on that later.

Teachers Galore! You can NEVER have too much of a good thing!

Never an agency to rest on our laurels we have taken the opportunity over the summer break to personally meet and register over 200 new teachers who will complement our existing database of quality teachers for the new academic year. ### Doing our bit for Charrrrity!!!

Ahoy there me hearties...at the end of the Summer Term we entered a raft into a River Festival in Bedford, we all dressed up as our favourite superhero's but unfortunately lacked the superhero powers to worry the winners!!! All was for a very worthy cause and we managed to raise an impressive £1090 to go towards a new mini bus for a local SEN School. Thanks for all your Donations.

The supply market has changed dramatically with the introduction of 'rarely cover' and the ever tightening purse strings, many more of our schools have now recruited cover supervisors, but what happens when they are off or run out during busy times? Simply Education has developed an innovative approach to this problem...working alongside and with the support of our partner schools, we train and develop potential cover supervisors who are interested in a teaching career. If you would like to find out how to become a partner school and benefit from the scheme, please contact your consultant for full details.
